

Whitman County Tour

May 17, 2004

- 1:00pm      Tour bus picks up Commission members at the Best Western.
- Pick up district supervisors and staff from NRCS parking lot.
- Kammerzell:      Technical and financial assistance for livestock concerns; 5th grade conservation planting.
- Cory Aeschliman, Whitman CD Board Supervisor / Producer will be speaking on direct seed versus conventional tillage.
- Aeschliman:      Direct seed cost-share and riparian buffer.
- Steptoe Butte:      Break.
(disembark)      Guest Speaker:
                         To be confirmed.
                         Producer/Supervisor:
                         Cory Aeschliman – Direct seed and water quality benefits from on-the-farm perspective
- Rob Buchert, Palouse CD Manager will be speaking on Watershed Planning.
- Rodeen:      Technical and financial assistance for livestock concerns.
- Sites: Oak Creek Farms, Keifer Farms
- Klemgard Park:      BBQ dinner.
- 8:00pm      Tour bus returns participants to NRCS parking lot and Best Western Hotel.